Logbooks & Work-time: Heavy Vehicle Drivers

$25,000

Maximum fine a company can incur if a driver doesn't comply with work-time rules

35 demerits

Maximum number of demerits a driver can get if they don't comply with logbook rules

$2000

Maximum fine a driver can incur per offence for not complying with work-time rules

Have your drivers had logbook fines & demerits?

1742 drivers did in 2022! What's the cost to your company if your driver is out for a month (or more) due to a logbook-related suspension? This one-hour online course will teach them everything they need to know to fill in their logbook accurately and within the work-time rules.

The course is broken down into 11 convenient modules which take between two and 10 minutes each. They cover:

- Work time
- Rest time
- Time extensions
- Unforeseen delays
- Exempt vehicles and drivers
- Multiple vehicle scenarios
- Offences
- Secondary employment
- Causes, symptoms and management of fatigue

This course was co-produced by TR Driver Training and DT Driver Training. It is exclusively delivered via DT's e-learning platform at www.drivingtests.co.nz.

Logbook examples for effective learning

Drivers will be able to experience a full 6-day driving scenario involving multiple stops and types of work plus 16 more examples of logbook pages showing correct and incorrect usage, accepted variations, common mistakes and what to do when a driving schedule is changed.

Who is this course suitable for?

- Any heavy vehicle driver that needs to understand logbooks and must comply with work-time rules will find this course beneficial.
- Transport operators who need a cost-effect method to ensure their drivers know their obligations for keeping their vehicles on the road.

The course is available on a smartphone, tablet or computer wherever you have internet access and it's a fraction of the cost of sending your driver to an off-site course. You can track your driver's progress through the course and generate a certificate of achievement once they have finished.

How much will it cost your company if one of your drivers can't drive? A lot more than the $40+GST it costs for them to take this course.
